

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Christine Jones named Marketing Director at Paulin Products, Inc.

Chagrin Falls, Ohio January 19, 2005

Paulin Products, Inc., a leading manufacturer of propane lighting and portable propane heating products, has recently named Christine Jones as Marketing Director. Ms. Jones, formerly the Corporate Advertising Director for Smythe Cramer Company, brings with her an extensive background in advertising, graphic arts and audio/visual production. Ms. Jones will create and oversee the production of all corporate branding, advertising and marketing material, and will implement an ongoing market strategy. In addition, she will assist the managing staff with presentations, account management and sales and market positioning.

Ms. Jones is a graduate of Bowling Green State University, and studied art history, communications and psychology in London, England.

Paulin's portable propane products are used in the hunting/fishing/camping and hardware markets throughout the United States and Canada. Our propane lights are permanently installed in Amish homes, fishing and hunting lodges, recreational vehicles and remote residences.

Paulin Products Inc. is located at 36 S. Franklin, Chagrin Falls, Ohio, 44022 and its manufacturing facility is located at 12911 Taft Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, 44108
